

Join the Ernesto Che Guevara Work Brigade!

Volunteer, visit Cuba and make a difference!

You should get involved!

Started in 1993, the Ernesto Che Guevara Work Brigade promotes friendship and solidarity between Canada and Cuba. The Brigade provides Canadians with a unique opportunity to learn more about Cuba, experience Cuban culture, and to make a difference volunteering to build the revolution. Brigadistas come from all walks of life and volunteer for many different reasons. Volunteers spend three weeks in Cuba working, but also spending time with Cubans and with like-minded people from all over Canada, visiting Havana and other provinces, attending cultural, educational and social events, and going to the beach!

Visit Cuba and learn more about the country's culture and history. Cuba has a broad cultural history and social fabric that includes baseball, jazz music, organic agriculture, art deco architecture, the world's finest cigars and some of the world's friendliest people!

Learn more about Cuba's approach to governance, democracy and communities. The Brigade provides an opportunity to witness this social dynamism up close as it is reflected in the the daily lives of the Cuban people!

Witness Cuba's unique combination of environmental commitment and economic development. Nowhere in the world is organic farming more developed than it is in Cuba. See birds, flowers, and other flora and fauna found nowhere else in the world!

Help build the revolution! Cuba is one the few places in the world where real, practical democracy flourishes. The brigade provides participants with an opportunity to participate in the on-going Cuban revolution as volunteers. Whether you're building schools or planting food crops, the Brigade provides you with an opportunity to participate in revolutionary history!
